She delivered a a powerful word of truth that proved to be life changing. Her heart and passion to see women boldly walk in all that God has called them to definitely shone through. Beth’s message was anointed, timely and spoke to the heart of the women in attendance, leaving them wanting more of God, more of His purpose and destiny for their lives. We look forward to having Beth as a speaker at future Well Watered Woman events.”

“Beth, thank you so much for giving your testimony today at the LIGHT House. So many of the participants asked me to thank you for your honesty and openness. They said you had a sweet spirit. I also want to personally thank you and commend you for the way you handled yourself. There were a couple of times when I felt tears come to my eyes because of the way God has worked in your life. He is so good, loving and gracious.”

Recommendation by Rev. Marcheta B. Devries, MTh.

“Beth has a tenacious hold on fulfilling God’s will for her life in life and ministry. She is totally devoted to the call of the Lord and seeking to share the things He has taught her. She is ready to do as 2 Corinthians 1:3–4 says, that as the Father of compassion and God of all comfort who comforts us in our troubles, we can comfort those in trouble with that same comfort. Any consideration given to her ministry and preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ would obviously be blessed and those who hear enriched spiritually.”

“What I love about Beth Jones’ teaching is the way she encourages and inspires women to move into God’s plans for their lives. It doesn’t matter what your past looks like. It doesn’t matter what obstacles you are facing now. When you grab hold of Jesus and don’t let go, and you seek His plan for your life, well then you can do anything He calls you to do because He equips you for it. You’ll come away from listening to Beth feeling ready to let go of your past and excited about what God has in the future for you.” – Jane VanOsdol, Christian writer/speaker, www.onlybyprayer.com
